HURRICANE'S TOLL ALONG GULF COAST MAY BE HUNDREDS LATE REPORTS SHOW

Casualties Grow as News Comes in From Storm Swept District.

CORPUS CHRISTI WAS DEALT SEVERE BLOW

Aransas Pass Also Said to Have Been Destroyed. Relief Trains Run.

(International News Service.) HOUSTON, Sept. 16.—"We need only undertakers at Portland." This grim message was received here today from Mayor Ammerman of Portland, a small town on the Gulf coast. 75 bodies have been washed ashore at Portland and 45 at other points.

(International News Service.) SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 16.—A special carrying 100,000 army rations, 1,000 tents, 15,000 blankets and 10,000 cots left here today for Corpus Christi, Texas, for the relief of sufferers in the storm section. The train also carried sufficient supplies to treat 1,000 persons.

(International News Service.) SAN ANTONIO, Sept. 16.—That portion of Texas along the Gulf was recovering today from the effects of the hurricane which swept along the Gulf carrying death and destruction, on Sunday. While no accurate estimate of the number killed could be made today, estimates placed the casualties at from 100 to 150. A dispatch received here told of the finding of 25 bodies at Corpus Christi. Relief trains bearing army physicians and nurses and great quantities of food and clothing are being sent into the tornado-swept district from several points today.

Word reached here early today that more than 100 bodies were found on a reef a short distance from Portland, and a majority of these are said to have been identified as residents of Corpus Christi. No word has been received as to the fate of 600 or more residents of Aransas Pass, which was reported completely destroyed. Early Monday morning word was received here that the captain of a vessel which was driven ashore there had managed to flash word by his ship's wireless that Aransas Pass was wiped out.

Practically every boat in the Gulf waters along the Texas coast was either totally destroyed or seriously damaged. All the remaining boats are searching frantically in the Gulf for persons who are clinging to reefs and wreckage and who were carried out by the receding waters.

MANY SHIPS CAUGHT

(International News Service.) ATLANTA, Sept. 16.—Reports of distress and disaster began to come in by wireless from the ships caught in the storm area this morning to the Savannah district office of the U. S. shipping board.

SURVIVORS PICKED UP

(International News Service.) SAVANNAH, Sept. 16.—Wireless reports were received this morning from a U. S. revenue cutter stating that it had picked up a survivor of the Barnstable, which sank 20 miles off Tybee Saturday night during the storm. It is feared that the rest of the crew was lost.

HUNDREDS ARE DEAD

(International News Service.) HOUSTON, Sept. 16.—Dr. W. W. Rhinehart, engaged in relief work at Sinton, Texas, today declared that the number killed by the tornado which swept the Gulf section will greatly exceed the early estimate of 200. According to Rhinehart 200 bodies have been counted that had washed across the bay. More than 3,000 are homeless at Corpus Christi, and the dead there is estimated at above 200.

ANOTHER AMERICAN IS HELD FOR RANSOM BY MEXICAN OUTLAWS

(International News Service.) Washington, Sept. 16.—The release of J. N. Smith, an American, who was captured by Mexican bandits last Saturday, will be affected today upon the payment of $6,000 ransom, according to advices to the state department this afternoon.

(International News Service.) San Antonio, Sept. 16.—Two more army aviators are missing as the result of a patrol along the Mexican border. Considerable anxiety for their safety is felt at headquarters. The missing men are Lieuts. L. S. Andrews and S. M. Perkins, who left Eagle Pass Sunday morning for a 2-hour flight and have not been seen or heard of since.

PLUCKY OFFICER FIGHTS NEGRO IN INKY DARKNESS

Patrolman Bates of the Decatur police department last night shot and painfully wounded Will McCarrin, negro, who later escaped and at a late hour today was still at large. The shooting followed a battle in the darkness of a negro residence in the eastern section of town between the plucky officer and the negro over a watch alleged to have been stolen from Asa McCullum, negro.

McCullum reported to Officer Bates last night that he believed he had located a watch which had been missing several days. The negro, accompanied by Officer Bates, went to the residence in which McCarrin was found.

Officer Bates attempted to search the negro, who showed a disposition to fight. McCullum aided the officer in seizing the defendant, who is said to have struck the officer. Use of his club proving unavailing, the patrolman drew his pistol. His first shot was fired inside the house, but the negro, in the melee, getting close to the door, ran. The officer, who today shows several scratches as a result of the encounter, fired five more times and it is believed McCullum was struck in the arm. The watch was recovered.

STEEL WORKERS IN CHICAGO DISTRICT MAY QUIT MONDAY

(International News Service.) CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—Steel workers, 150,000 strong, will lay down their tools Monday morning in a strike that will paralyze the steel industry in this section unless within the next 24 hours E. H. Gary consents to meet the international committee of steel workers, according to a statement by Theodore Vind, international organizer of the steel workers, here today.

JAMES E. MOONEY, LEATHER MAGNATE, DIES IN CINCINNATI; OWNS LOCAL PLANT

BODY TO BE BURIED IN EDINBURG, IND.

Deceased Was Pioneer in the Leather Tanning Industry of Nation.

James E. Mooney, principal owner of the American Oak Leather company's plant here, an uncle of Mrs. W. R. Smith and a former resident of Albany, died in Cincinnati last night. He was 88 years of age. Funeral services will be held Thursday and interment made at Edinburg, Ind. Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Smith and H. B. Beard, local manager of the American Oak Leather company, will leave this afternoon to attend the services.

Mr. Mooney was one of the most prominent tanning magnates in the United States. He was reputed to have been a multi-millionaire and was largely interested at one time in the manufacture of starch. At the time of his death, in addition to having large holdings in the leather industry, he also was interested in the manufacture of caskets and an irrigation plan in California.

Formerly Lived Here.

Mr. Mooney came here in 1885 looking for a location for an Oak Extract plant. The industry was in its infancy and Mr. Mooney was one of the pioneers in the field. He is given a large credit for the development of the industry.

Part of the present property of the local plant was acquired in 1886 and additional property in 1894 and 1895. The plant began operation in 1897 and now is one of the largest in the nation. During its early development Mr. Mooney resided here with his sister, Mrs. Harvey Lewis. He made his home here for nearly 15 years but after the death of his sister removed to Cincinnati.

He has been in declining health several months and his death was not entirely unexpected, though news of it telegraphed here today caused widespread sorrow. Mr. Mooney was well known by all of the older residents of Albany-Decatur, his kind and generous nature having made for him hundreds of staunch friends here.

Mrs. Smith and a nephew, W. P. Fogarty, who lived in Albany until a short time ago, are among surviving relatives. Mr. Fogarty's home now is in Cincinnati.

BARTON NAMED TO SUCCEED HOOPER

(International News Service.) SELMA, Sept. 16.—Gen. John J. Barton, of Birmingham commander of the Fourth Alabama brigade, U. S. V., has been appointed to succeed Gen. Hooper, deceased, as commander of the Alabama veterans.

George Wheadon Inherits Fortune

George T. Wheadon, wherever he may be, is entitled to a fortune of $20,000, officials here have been advised by attorneys of Omaha, Neb. The letter received in Alabama from Nebraska agents says:

"A man died in Nebraska two and one-half years ago, known as John Weiden. He left an estate of from $15,000 to $20,000 but no heirs. There is a belief, however, that his true name was John A. Wheadon and that he had a brother by the name of George T. Wheadon, whose whereabouts are unknown. There is some reason to think that he may be in your city and I would like to ask if he is there now or for any information you may be able to give me about him."

"YOU'RE A QUITTER, TOO," SAYS SHERMAN TO PRESIDENT WILSON

Republican Senator Discusses Peace Covenant in a Purely Personal Way.

(International News Service.) WASHINGTON, Sept. 16.—"The president denounces all who do not follow him as contemptible quitters and vacillating time-servers, as ostriches with their heads in the sand," Senator Sherman, republican, declared in the senate this afternoon when debate on the treaty with Germany was resumed. "The president," declared Sherman, "is the crowned monarch of quitters, without a rival in the western hemisphere. No man in public life ever quit quicker or oftener. His silence and speed when escaping from his imperishable principles of yesterday is as abysmal and swift as primal chaos, or a fallen angel sweeping to his predestined doom. His echoes, lacking the agility and silence of their chief, make a considerable exhibition of themselves in the subordinate role of beating a more vociferous retreat."

ALL STARS FROM MAGIC CITY MEET ALBANY-DECATUR

Under the management of W. E. Scott, the reorganized Albany-Decatur baseball team will meet an All-Star aggregation picked from the teams of the Birmingham city leagues, here Friday and Saturday in a three game series. A single game will be played Friday and a double header Saturday. Sunday the squad probably will play on the government reservation at Muscle Shoals.

Mr. Scott today stated the following probably will be the local's lineup for the contests:

Halbrooks, 1b.
McDuff, 2b.
Baker, ss.
Mitwede, 3b.
Russell, cf.
Baker, cf.
Roberts, lf.

Lewis will work the first game for Albany-Decatur, with Steadman receiving. Graham and Barnes will do the battery work in the second and Barnes and Barnes in the third. Russell will be relief pitcher and Dunn will appear in the role of utility man. Frohoff, star right gardener of the locals, probably will not play. He has taken up farming.

McDuff will be field leader of the local team. Mr. Scott, himself a former infielder for five years in the Southern circuit, will handle the team from the bench this season. Next year he expects to get into the line up.

The teams will meet on a percentage basis, the winner getting 60% and the loser 40%, providing an added incentive for the teams to cop.

MACON COPS DEFY SUPERIOR OFFICERS

(International News Service.) MACON, Sept. 16.—Although the civil service commission last night demanded that the policemen and firemen of Macon surrender their union cards and dissolve their union, the city employees continued defiant this morning, and declared "we will stay on the job until they put us out."

Council to Take Up Paving Tonight

The Albany city council will hold its regular meeting tonight when it is expected that action will be taken on a number of improvement ordinances now pending before the aldermanic body.

The directors of the Albany Board of Commerce will meet at 6 o'clock today to plan for a general membership meeting to be held within the next few weeks to discuss a reorganization of the Board. The director's meeting will be held in the rooms of the commercial body.

WILSON TRAIN IS SPEEDING SOUTH TO FRISCO; NEW CREED IS BEING PREACHED

President Calls For a Leadership That Will Consider Safety of World.

MEMBERS OF PARTY KILLED AT PORTLAND

Newspaper Men Lose Lives When Speeding Auto is Wrecked.

(By JOHN EDWIN NEVIN.)

ON BOARD President Wilson's special en route to San Francisco, Sept. 16.—Reports that Secretary of State Robt. Lansing plans to retire from the cabinet within a short time and that he will be replaced by Frank Polk, under-secretary of state and now head of the American commission to negotiate peace in Paris, were current in Seattle and Portland when President Wilson was there. It has so far been impossible to secure any confirmation of the report. However, there is a belief here that Mr. Lansing may decide to leave official life before the end of the year because his health is not too robust and it is known that he desires to resume his practice of international law. Reports of friction between the secretary and President Wilson have been strenuously denied.

President Wilson uttered a new creed today in a few short addresses at points along the route from Portland to San Francisco. The president said: "Let us, every of us, bind ourselves in a solemn league and covenant of our own that we will let no man stand in our way of leadership, and that in leading we must lead not along the paths of national advantage but along the lines of human rights and the salvation of the world."

The creed originated late last night in Portland where, under the inspiration of an audience that cheered his every utterance to the echo, the president demanded united action in demanding that the senate ratify the Versailles treaty as it stands.

The presidential special left Portland at 11 o'clock last night. Today was spent speeding southward through Oregon and California. Oakland will not be reached until Wednesday morning and San Francisco an hour later.

The president today was engaged in rallying to his support and to the support of the treaty the so-called "mild reservationists" of the senate. It is understood that he believes they will back him up when the show-down comes. The president remains supremely confident that he will be supported when the vote is reached in the senate. The action of the president in his address in Portland in reading an extract from an address by Senator Lodge at Union College in 1915, in which the latter was quoted as saying that "nations must unite in order to preserve peace and order," was an indication of what may be expected on the last half of the present tour.

MEMBERS PARTY KILLED

There was deep sorrow among those of President Wilson's special train today. One of their number—big, whole-hearted, honorable Ben Allen—had been left behind, a victim of the speed mania of the day, and another member of the party, Stanley Reynolds, had been left in a Portland hospital suffering from the effects of the same accident that cost Allen his life, while on the train another member of the party, Robt. Small, was also suffering, following the automobile accident in Portland, in which the automobile turned over.

Responsibility for the accident rested entirely on the miserable arrangements made to safeguard the party. It might have just as easily been the president who was in the accident, for all along the Columbia boulevard the leading car was running about 40 miles an hour.

ANNOUNCEMENT

(Paid Political Advertising.)
We are authorized to announce Hodges Crow as a candidate for Tax Collector of Morgan county, subject to the Democratic primary. Your vote and influence solicited.

SEVENTH DISTRICT IS POLITICAL STORM CENTER

The Seventh Alabama congressional district, so long and ably represented in Congress by the late John L. Burnett, is now the political storm center of the state. Both republicans and democrats have nominated a candidate for the place left vacant by Mr. Burnett, and reports coming out of the district indicate that it is a fight to a finish.

Strange as it may seem, the impression has gone abroad that the chief issue in the contest is the League of Nations, and it is reported that the campaign speeches of Senator Jim Reed, the obnoxious gentleman from Missouri, are being widely circulated by the republicans. The Daily is not inclined to believe that the voters of the Seventh, taken as a whole, are any too familiar with the terms of the Versailles peace pact, nor does it believe that they are any too eager to relinquish the peace guarantees carried in the world covenant. It can readily understand, however, that partisan bias might line the republicans up against anything favored by Woodrow Wilson, and that a large foreign-born population might be inclined to lend an ear to the un-American utterances of Reed.

The Seventh district has always been of uncertain politics. It boasts just about as many republican as democratic voters, and only the personal popularity of Mr. Burnett kept him in office for so many years. It would be most unfortunate if the democrats should lose even one seat in congress at a time like this when the welfare of the world depends upon America's keeping the pledges that Mr. Wilson made at Paris.

FINDING A CURE FOR SPANISH "FLU"

The bill introduced in Congress by Representative Fess, of Ohio, and authorizing an appropriation for experiments intended to find a cure for Spanish "Flu," has been slumbering serenely in the pigeon hole for the past six months. An effort will be made this week by its author to bring it up for immediate consideration, but the general apathy of congress towards the public health does not insure his success.

"Scientists agree that the only way to find a cure for the disease is to isolate the germ that causes it," Mr. Fess is quoted as saying. His utterance is one that the medical fraternity will not try to controvert, nor will the nation understand why money is not made available at once for this germ hunt. Although the death toll from "Flu" last year was far in excess of the entire American casualties in the world war, and although twenty billion dollars was considered only a trifle when autocracy threatened, some of the niggardly congressmen are unwilling to spend a mere million to protect the public from the most deadly of all plagues. Hundreds of thousands of lives are to be jeopardized, it seems, to save a small sum.

There is no doubt that there will be a recurrence of the "Flu" epidemic this winter, and it is up to the federal authorities to do all in their power to ward it off.

James E. Mooney, the American leather magnate, died last night at Cincinnati. This active life closed full of honors, having been well spent in doing deeds of good. Deceased made his home here for some years, where he formed many ties of friendship, never to be broken. There are many in this community who will be bowed down with sorrow at the passing of so valuable and kindly man. He was true to his God, himself and to his friends. He was a man of exceptional business ability, building up a large fortune, and it has been said of him, "every dollar was earned."

WORTH MANY MILLIONS;
JUST A CUB REPORTER
Cornelius Vanderbilt, Jr., is breaking into the newspaper game. Although he has to so many millions it would make you dizzy counting them he has chosen the lowly job of "cub" reporter, hoping to win his way up in his chosen field thru ability rather than because of his wealth. Young Vanderbilt is the son of Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Cornelius Vanderbilt. He served in France as a buck private with the Twenty-seventh division. While over there he discovered that whenever there was a task that required resourcefulness and initiative it was assigned to a former newspaper man. He found that men of this class were the brightest and most alert he met. It was largely this that induced him to ignore the wishes of his family to prepare himself for a career as an engineer and take up newspaper work. His ambition is to eventually own and edit a big metropolitan newspaper, but his chief concern now is to learn the business from the very bottom.—Publishers Auxiliary.

JUST IN PASSING

ONLY SUMMER ANTI-SKID

"Where did you get that coatie garage?" asked an inquisitive newspaper man of a well known resident of Albany who was sporting a faint down upon his upper lip.

"O, that is merely summer anti-skid," was the reply courteous.

FLOURISHING FLORENCE

"I was over at Florence the other day," said an Albany man, "and was impressed with the flourishing appearance of the town. It had a regular boom look, with all the streets torn-up so that new paving could be laid and with many business houses in process of construction. Florence, apparently, is growing rapidly, a fact which is attributed in part to its live commercial club, with an annual revenue of over $25,000. I was told that some of the business institutions of the city contributed as much as $40 per month in the way of dues to this organization, the secretary of which receives a salary of $6,000 per year."

TALK OF BIGGER THINGS

"Now that the Lynne bill is certain of adoption, and the consolidation of Albany and Decatur is imminent, I hear considerable talk on the streets in regard to big things for the future," said a business man. "The idea is rapidly taking hold that with consolidation affected, the first move on the program should be the organization of a live Board of Commerce, with an annual income of $15,000 at least, one that could do something and that would not be eternally crippled for lack of funds. With the towns united, I am convinced that the organization of such a commercial body is entirely feasible."

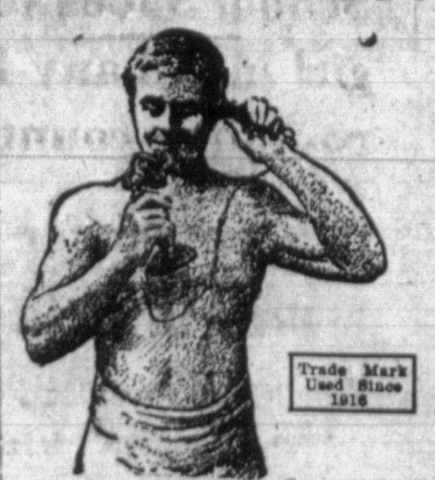

SOME BALL CLUB

"I wish Lawrenceburg still had her team," said "Dutch" Mitweide, "for when we get our gang organized again I want to stack it against the Tennessee outfit. We expect to have the fastest aggregation in the South."

SOME RELIEF IN SIGHT

"There is some consolation for the room seekers in yesterday's want columns of The Daily," said a well known citizen. "For the first time in many months there were five rooms advertised for rent in the paper yesterday."

Prelude to Adventure.

"I have placed my will in my safety deposit box," grimly said J. Fuller (loom). "My pockets are filled with condensed and dehydrated foods. I shall attach the end of this stout cord to a convenient projection, light a candle and enter, crawling carefully and cautiously, the dark and stagnant, paying out the cord as I go, and—"

"Great heavens! Mr. Gloom!" ejaculated an acquaintance. "Are you contemplating exploring some vast and dismal cavern?"

"Yes, I am going into our Kansas City post office for the purpose of having weighed, purchasing stamps for, and mailing this parcel-post package."

—Kansas City Star.

Liquid Accident.

Secretary Elmer Thompson of the Automobile Club of America said in New York the other day:

"The automobile gets the blame for everything. A man lay in the middle of the road one evening, surrounded by a large crowd. An old lady pushed her way into the crowd and said:

"Poor fellow! Poor young fellow!

"I suppose an automobile run into him."

"No, ma'am," said a policeman. "It wasn't an automobile that ran into him this time."

"What was it, then?" said the old lady.

"It was a keg, or maybe a keg and a half of beer," said the policeman."

BURN MORE AIR—LESS FUEL

600 Cubic feet of air are required, ordinarily, to burn one pound of coal

NATURE will give you, for the mere taking, a limitless amount of pure air. It costs you absolutely nothing—it is free. On the other hand, every pound of your coal or wood costs you money—hard earned money.

Your range literally chokes it's fire. It can not supply the required amount of air, and at the proper place. It is throwing ton after ton of your hard earned fuel up the chimney as unburned fuel gases.

You cannot afford to go on year after year wasting so much of your fuel. Buy the range that is guaranteed to save you fuel, and that will actually pay for itself in the fuel saved—buy—

CLAIMS HONOR FOR GEORGIAN

Savannah Newspaper Asserts That Elias Howe Was Not Inventor of the Sewing Machine.

The centenary of the birth of Elias Howe, the modest Yankee who invented the sewing machine, took place on June 9. There was no extended observance of the day, observes Hartford Courant, yet it was Howe who took a good deal of the drudgery out of the lives of millions of American women. He also increased the power of his fellow men to produce garments and other material that formerly needed the patient handwork of individuals.

But it is interesting to observe, in connection with the anniversary, that the Savannah News undertakes the rather hopeless task of trying to convince its readers that it was not Howe, but a Georgian, Francis R. Goulding, who constructed and operated the first sewing machine. This paper says that this man, a Presbyterian preacher living in Liberty county, married a Savannah girl and then began work on a sewing machine in order that he might save his fair wife much hard work. Alleging this was long before Howe patented his machine, and also that Goulding never patented his, they try to show his motives were purely altruistic and not commercial. It all sounds good, but it will take considerable "space" in the Georgia newspapers to convince the world that Goulding takes the prize.

AL SHAFER'S SHOW BEST YET

The popular Al Shaffer Boys and Girls company opened a weeks engagement last night at the Masonic and it was pronounced by critics who have seen the Shaffer show each year to be the best that he has brought to Albany since the show has been coming here yearly.

"The Strollers Quartette" made an instant hit last night—being made to respond to encore after encore. The boys can really sing close harmony and as each member has a trained voice they blend together nicely. Slim Meachum, the comedian, and Miss Dot Moore—who are old favorites here—were usual captivated the audience. Kain and Kain, harmony singers, demonstrated that singing is their line. George Pares and each and every member of the company performed their parts wonderfully well. The chorus is a good looking one and the costumes are the best and prettiest that have ever been seen with a company of this kind at the Masonic. As advertised, special scenery was displayed and electrical effects that were charming to the eye.

Tonight an entire change of program will be given and on Wednesday night Miss Stella Werner and Paul Chapman, members of the company, will be married publicly upon the stage immediately after the performance is over. Thursday night a house and lot is to be given away free to the holder of the lucky number and on Friday the usual big old fashioned country store will be given by the leading merchants of Albany and Decatur.

MARGUERITE CLARK HAS FINE ROLE IN "OUT OF CLEAR SKY"

Dainty Paramount Star Plays Part of Belgian Countess in Strong Photoplay—Delite Wednesday.

A dainty Belgian countess who objects to being made a pawn of state and sold in marriage to a dissolute German prince, is the captivating role essayed by Marguerite Clark in her newest Paramount photoplay, "Out of a Clear Sky" which will be shown at the Delite theatre next Wednesday.

Miss Clark's picture is an adaptation by Charles Maigne from "Out of a Clear Sky" a novel written by Maria Thompson Daviess, in which the principal character is Celeste, the tiny but stately Countess of Bersek and Krymn.

World's Debt to the East.

Civilization was born in the East. For ages letters, art, religion flowed westward from Asia. When Europe was a wilderness, peopled only with savage, wandering tribes, learning and government flourished beyond the Danubius. From Armenia, Syria and Persia came both the Jewish and the Christian religions, the alphabet and much of science. Long since the tide turned. Civilization among these eastern peoples began to ebb, and they have slipped far back toward their pastoral days.

Unearth Wooden Water Pipes Which Supplied Boston Until Big Fire

(International News Service.)

BOSTON, Sept. 13.—Wooden water pipes, crumbling with age and long usage, which served the Devonshire street section of Boston with water from the stirring times of the Revolution to the Boston fire of 1872, have been unearthed while installing high water pressure pipes. Although the pipes have not been in use since the rebuilding of that section of the city which was devastated by the fire, they still are in fairly good condition.

Close behind one old pipe were found two pennies of the coinage of 1803 and 1844. The older of the coins is in almost perfect condition, despite the one hundred and sixteen years since it came from the mint. The fraction 1-1000 is on the back of the coin.

India Again Importing.

All restrictions on the importation into India of any American manufactures or products, with the exception of gold and silver coin or bullion and cocaine, have been removed. Importation of cocaine and allied drugs is forbidden at all times except under a license granted by the chief customs officer at the place of import. The importation of gold and silver coin and bullion is restricted in that the government of India reserves the right to purchase all importations of same.

Sandbag Exercises.

New exercises for home and gymnasium use, which can be employed in place of either dumbbells or Indian clubs, consist of long, slender sandbags of any desired weight, which are made of durable fabric and provided with rope handles at either end. On the sides of the webbing are loops into which the feet can be inserted for leg exercises. Besides serving the purpose of several types of exercisers, it is pointed out that the sandbags are preferable to Indian clubs and dumbbells in that they can be used noiselessly.

YOUNG WOMAN TO RESUME HER TEACHING SOON

MISS FROGUE AGAIN CAPABLE OF PERFORMING DUTIES SINCE TAKING TRUTONA.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Sept. 15.—"I had to give up my work as a school teacher on account of poor health, but I've felt so remarkably well, since taking Trutona, that I intend to resume my duties in the near future," Miss Myrtle Frogue, 20 years old, a well-known Nashville young woman of 1515 East Douglas avenue, said recently.

"I had been suffering from stomach trouble and nervousness," she continued. "For the past two months I haven't been able to eat any supper because of severe heartburn I'd invariably suffer afterward. The little food I ate caused me to be constipated, which resulted in my experiencing severe headaches and frequent attacks of dizziness. I also often had pains in the back of my neck."

"I have been taking Trutona only several days, but already the medicine has helped me wonderfully. My nerves are stronger and more steady and the formerly severe pains in my head and neck are becoming more and more infrequent. And that means a lot to me, for I used to have the headache for a week at a time. My appetite is much better now, also. Why, I've been eating supper regularly for the past week and it hasn't hurt me a bit. In short, my stomach trouble is almost a thing of the past. I think Trutona is a wonderful medicine and I'm confident it will put others on the road to good health as it has me."

Trutona is now being introduced and explained in Decatur by Decatur Drug Co. and in Albany by Preuit-Dillehay Drug Co.—Advertisement.

Shortage of Teachers Caused by Low Wages

(International News Service.)
ST. LOUIS, Mo., Sept. 15.—There is a shortage of about 4,000 teachers in Missouri and almost that many in Kansas, according to a statement of Dr. W. J. Hawkins, field secretary of Washington University.

Dr. Hawkins attributes the scarcity primarily to the meagre salaries being paid teachers. Commercial and manufacturing firms have drawn heavily on the teaching force also, he says. He estimates that about 400,000 vacancies exist in the United States.

Only 8 in Every 1000 Know Lord's Prayer

(International News Service.)
BOSTON, Sept. 13.—There are only eight persons in every thousand in the State of Massachusetts who know the Lord's Prayer or the Ten Commandments, according to a survey made by the International World Movement of the Churches.

According to the survey made in New York, Massachusetts is ahead in the number of those who have heard of the Lord's Prayer or the Ten Commandments.

In New York the proposition is large of those who never heard of these two spiritual agencies.

No More Hymns of Hate for Hun

By ALFRED G. ANDERSEN,
International News Service Staff
Correspondent.

BERLIN, Sept. 13.—The doctrine of eternal peace and universal brotherhood is to be the fundamental idea of education in Prussia hereafter. The idea of revenge and hatred preached by the conservative element of Germany will not be tolerated in the classroom. Germany's youth will be taught that the redemption of the fatherland is to be achieved through useful work, not through another bloody war.

These statements were made to me by Herr Haenisch, Prussian Minister of Education, author of the educational articles in Germany's new constitution and a reluctant partner to the school compromise exacted by the Catholics in the third reading of the constitution.

"With these objects in mind I have just ordered a sweeping revision of text books," said Herr Haenisch. "The old chauvinistic teachings will be expunged from our school books. That does not mean, however, that the children will not be brought up in a spirit of nationalism. On the contrary, our policy will be to teach them to be Germans and to be proud of their country's achievements in art, literature and culture."

The writings of the German League of Nations Society are to be introduced into the public schools in the form of lectures. That will help the children to a better understanding of the rest of the world.

I reminded Herr Haenisch of the proclamation of revenge and hatred published by certain professors of the Berlin University, including Dr. Kuno Meyer, some time ago. The said proclamation, it will be remembered, was a pledge to sow the seed of hatred in the breasts of Germany's youth for untold generations to come. Herr Haenisch replied:

"I did not interfere with this proclamation because to do so, even in the case of men who technically are working under me, would have been an infringement on the right of free speech, which you as an American must readily realize. But I can assure you that any teacher who attempts to scatter such notions in the classroom will be dismissed."

I asked Herr Haenisch to explain the salient features of the constitutional school articles, including the somewhat complicated compromise between the socialists and clericals.

"The constitution," answered Herr Haenisch, "prescribes compulsory education for a period of twelve years. The first eight years are spent in the public schools; the remaining four in institutions corresponding to your high schools, also at the expense of the public. The young men and women will finish their education at eighteen, unless they desire to enter a university. There will be no more class schools; all schools are to be open to the poor."

To my suggestion that poor parents with many children to support might find it a hardship to be compelled to keep the bigger children at school when they could be working and adding their share to the family income, Herr Haenisch responded that social improvement would go hand in hand with education, and that in the new Germany none would be too poor to give his children a proper education.

The Telltale Thumb.
It is a well-known fact among nerve specialists that by an examination of the thumb they can tell if the patient is affected, or likely to be affected, by paralysis or not, as the thumb will indicate this a long time before there is any trace of the disease in any other part of the system.

Failed to Honor the National Anthem, Fired

(International News Service.)
ATTLEBORO, Mass., Sept. 13.—Because he would not bare his head while the "Star Spangled Banner" was played at a recent concert

Willis H. Streeter has lost his job as election officer in Ward 2, which he had held twenty-five years. A world-war "vet," Henry W. Bartlett, will probably take his place.

Streeter's name has been scratched from the list of officers recommended to the City Council by Mayor Brady and the name of Bartlett substituted.

When Streeter did not bare his head as a band started the national anthem a group of foreign war veterans removed his hat for him. He replaced it, and it was knocked off a second time.

Make Our Own Beauty.
Men and women make their own beauty or ugliness. Bulwer speaks in one of his novels of a man "who was uglier than he had any business to be," and, if we could but read it, every human being carries his life in his face, and is good looking, or the reverse, as that life has been good or evil. On our features the fine chords of thought and emotion are eternally at work.—Alexander Smith.
